Introducing Our Tactical Patrol Unit

Our Tactical Patrol Unit (TPU) is a high-profile security unit that provides plain clothes or high-visibility escort services for the VIPs.

The TPU is staffed with highly-trained, highly-qualified tactical officers who can provide a range of services to our clients, including:

Vehicle escorts for VIP's

Targeted observation and surveillance of individuals of interest

Blocking and screening at events of venues where the VIP will be in attendance

At Guardforce Security Services, we take pride in providing the highest level of protection for your premises and ensuring the safety of our clients personnel and assets.

Our Tactical Patrol Unit (TPU) is an elite team of extensively trained officers who are experts in conflict management, door supervision, self-defence and the art of defusing tense situations with a calm and composed approach.

4 things that set us apart

Elite Training

Our TPU officers undergo a rigorous training program to equip themselves with advanced skills and knowledge in the handling of complex security challenges. From conflict resolution to crisis management, they are adept at handling difficult situations.

Solutions tailored for you

We know that every client has their own unique security requirements. Our TPU is adaptable and can tailor its operations to suit your specific needs. Whether it involves patrolling your premises or remaining on stand-by, our officers are ready to implement proactive security measures to safeguard your property and personnel.

Highly visible presence

Our TPU operates from a vehicle with a clear and specially marked livery – ensuring we maintain a visible and reassuring presence. This visibility acts as a deterrent to potential threats against your premises, enhancing the overall security posture of your organization.

Comprehensive capabilities

Our officers are equipped not only with conflict management skills but also with expertise in crowd control, first aid and arrest techniques that use minimum force. This means they can respond appropriately to a wide range of security incidents and provide immediate assistance when needed.

When it comes to safeguarding your premises, trust the expertise of Guardforce Security Services' Tactical Patrol Unit. Contact us today to discuss your security needs and let us provide you with a comprehensive solution that ensures your peace of mind.
